The moment we do this, we are confronted by a startling spectacle, -- a vision which seems to negative all hope; which looks to be, so far as any prospect of unity is concerned, a veritable apocalypse of despair. It is doubtful whether in any language there exists a conspectus of the religious statistics of a people so complete as that which he and his able helpers have succeeded in putting before us. In English there is nothing that approaches it. Not only are the figures with respect to denominational strength marshalled and re-marshalled in almost all possible combinations; not only are we told...
