Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book provides observations and insights from Expeditionary Warrior 2012 (EW12), the latest iteration of the Marine Corps Title 10 wargame. The EW series serves as a responsive means to examine operational concepts and future capability requirements for the senior leadership of the Marine Corps. Following up on EW11's initial examination of the Joint Operational Access Concept (JOAC), EW12 sought to further identify potential gaps and opportunities that would enable joint force access to required operational areas against capable adversaries in an anti-access, area-denial (A2/AD) environment. As a global power, the United States must be able to project military power into any region of the world in support of its strategic interests. Over the past several decades, the United States has been able to deploy forces to an operational area virtually unopposed - from the free flow of personnel and supplies to Korea, Vietnam, Desert Storm, and more recently, to the unchallenged deployment of forces and equipment to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom in 2001 and Kuwait for Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003. However, current and future operating environments are increasingly characterized by complexity, uncertainty and rapid change. The dramatic improvement and proliferation of A2/AD capabilities by determined adversaries, enhanced by ready access to the information environment, could challenge U.S. and coalition forces ability to gain operational access to global areas of interest in the future. Enemies may include states with regional aspirations or nonstate/ transnational hybrid adversaries that combine high-tech A2/AD resources with low-tech but innovative methods of employment. These opponents could possess a range of conventional and unconventional capabilities - from sophisticated long- and short-range precision weapons, integrated air defenses, electronic warfare and...
