Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Railway Inquiry: In the Matter of Rates, Fares and Charges of Carriers by Railroad Subject to the Interstate Commerce Act That organization follows, in a general way, the organization prepared when we handled Ex Parte 74 (the rate case of August, 1920) before you. The Eastern group of railroads have subdivided themselves into a Trunk Line group, a Central Freight Association group and a New England group. The Southern group is as it was before; the Western group is as it was before. For each one of these groups there has been created an executive committee, made up of executive officers and, with them, committees of lawyers, of accountants and of traffic officers. The very best and most intelligent men that are in the service of the carriers will appear before you, in due time, to answer as completely as they can the thirteen inquiries and discuss as completely as they can the thirteen subjects outlined by you in your written paper of November 28th, and any other matters that you may, in your...
