Excerpt: . . . own character, his highly polished manners, and the uncommon ability, with which it was known that he executed his important commission, were the chief and sufficient recommendation to the notice and esteem of men, whom it is an honor to know, and who honor the country to which they belong. By such men Mr. Gore was highly esteemed, and received from them constant proofs of regard. When Mr. King, who was our minister at the Court of St. James, returned to this country in 1803, he appointed Mr. Gore charge d'affaires, ; and in this station he exhibited the same talent and fidelity, that marked all his other public proceedings. In 1804, Mr. Gore came home, and was received by his fellow citizens with every demonstration of respect and affectionate regard. Upon his return to this country, Mr. Gore resumed the practice...
