Boxer Books. 1 Cloth(s), 2013. hard. Book Condition: New. Selected and adapted by Jane Ray, each of these 12 stories, poems, or myths from around the world feature birds in a prominent role. Along with some familiar favorites (the tale of Noah's Ark from the Old Testament, Oscar Wilde's "The Happy Prince," and Edward Lear's "The Owl and the Pussycat"), some eclectic choices are here as well (the Tanzanian folktale "Mulungu Paints the Birds" and the Native American legend "Heron and Hummingbird," for example). Other authors include Emily Dickinson, the Brothers Grimm, and Hans Christian Andersen. Created in a variety of styles to match the individual stories, Ray's folksy mixed-media illustrations make this anthology for readers and listeners 5 and up into a keepsake. 173.
