

The Luck of the Bodkins

By P. G. Wodehouse

Everyman. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Luck of the Bodkins, P. G. Wodehouse, Monty Bodkin's pursuit of Gertude Butterwick is temporarily interrupted by his encounter with silver-screen siren Miss Lotus Blossom, who sees in him a means of restoring relations with her idol, the novelist Ambrose Tennyson. But Monty is not the only one with problems. Ambrose's brother Reggie has money troubles and Ikey Llewellyn is struggling with difficulties which would tax anyone's ingenuity, let alone his limited brain power. When the paths of these men collide, the ensuing plot complications produce a vintage Wodehouse farce involving London, New York, Hollywood and transatlantic liners. A delicious period piece from 1935.
