

Harmony on the High Seas, When Your Mate Becomes Your Matey

By Virginia Gleser

Harmony Enterprises. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 309 pages. What is it that compels us to follow our all-consuming passions Is it a search for that elusive, genuine happiness that uplifts the spirit and satisfies the soul But why go cruising For my husband Robert and I, it was the innate desire to explore our world, escape the rat race and cold winters, while partaking of a truly unique lifestyle. A romantic dream enticed us to sail to warm, secluded beaches in the tropics to spend time swimming and snorkeling in aquarium-like settings, spending time in nature in its least corrupted arena. The ingenuity, perseverance, and hard work that was required by both of us to keep the dream alive and the ship in running shape, bred a mutual respect and trust that generated love and strengthened our relationship. Harmony on the High Seas, When Your Mate Becomes Your Matey explores the leap of faith that was required when we cast off the dock lines, and shares both a tangible and mystical view of our sailing experience. About the author: An ocean child from her earliest memories, Virginia Gleser grew up sailing on the Yellow Sea off of the coast...
